From the Vietnam Women's Union (Lien Hiep Phu Nu Vietnam--Ed) to the Women's Unions of the Fifth Interzone and of South Vietnam:

Summary of the directive number 2/ST/LHPN concerning the reception of President Ho Chi Minh's letter to the women on the occasion of March 8 (International Women's Day for Peace--Ed).

On March 8 of this year, we are extremely happy to receive President Ho Chi Minh's letter. In his letter, President Ho Chi Minh recalls our exploits, acknowledges our strength in the common struggle, and he instructs us to realize clearly our concrete duty in the present stage. All Echelons must clearly realize the importance of this letter and carry out the following tasks in due time:

1. Print President Ho Chi Minh's letter and distribute it even in hamlets.
2. Read the letter solemnly on the anniversary of March 8.
3. Organize meetings for the study of President Ho Chi Minh's letter. In case the letter comes late and cannot be read on March 8, the inauguration of the meeting for the study of this letter must be held in a solemn manner. Echelons of zones and provinces will conclude (this task?) on May 19. The date for the Echelons of districts', villages', and organizations' members will be determined by the zones.
4. Intensify the main tasks outlined by President Ho Chi Minh in the zone.

The results will be reported to the Central Association so that we will report them to President Ho Chi Minh.
